This circular is being issued as per the directions of Hon'ble Chairman. Institute has instructed the Department to form a special group for Mentoring and Counselling the students. Role of this group is extremely important in the present time of crisis .Institute has instructed all the department to ensure the proper mental health and well being of the students especially incurrent situation. Students are getting worried and concerned about their future career and life. Making them stress free and psychologically strong is of prime concern. Institute directs the departments to initiate the following measures immediately in this regard. We are sure, that many institutes must be practicing this.

4. Mentors must maintain the records of all the interactions with their mentees.
5. Take the help of professional counsel or psychiatrist if possible and refer the delicate cases.

We are enclosing here with the circular received from UGC, which has few video links useful in such counseling process.
